§ 2.803 Determination of petition.

No hearing will be held on the petition unless the Commission deems it advisable. If the Commission determines that sufficient reason exists, it will publish a notice of proposed rulemaking. In any other case, it will deny the petition and will notify the petitioner with a simple statement of the grounds of denial.

§ 2.804 Notice of proposed rulemaking.

- (a) Except as provided by paragraph (d) of this section, when the Commission proposes to adopt, amend, or repeal a regulation, it will cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice of proposed rulemaking, unless all persons subject to the notice are named and either are personally served or otherwise have actual notice in accordance with law
 - (b) The notice will include:
- (1) Either the terms or substance of the proposed rule, or a specification of the subjects and issues involved;
- (2) The manner and time within which interested members of the public may comment, and a statement that copies of comments may be examined will be made available at the NRC Web site, http://www.nrc.gov;
- (3) The authority under which the regulation is proposed;
- (4) The time, place, and nature of the public hearing, if any;
- (5) If a hearing is to be held, designation of the presiding officer and any special directions for the conduct of the hearing; and
- (6) Such explanatory statement as the Commission may consider appropriate.
- (c) The publication or service of notice will be made not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the time fixed for hearing, if any, unless the Commission for good cause stated in the notice provides otherwise.
- (d) The notice and comment provisions contained in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section will not be required to be applied—
- (1) To interpretative rules, general statements of policy, or rules of agency organization, procedure, or practice; or
- (2) When the Commission for good cause finds that notice and public comment are impracticable, unnecessary,

- or contrary to the public interest, and are not required by statute. This finding, and the reasons therefor, will be incorporated into any rule issued without notice and comment for good cause.
- (e) The Commission shall provide for a 30-day post-promulgation comment period for—
- (1) Any rule adopted without notice and comment under the good cause exception on paragraph (d)(2) of this section where the basis is that notice and comment is "impracticable" or "contrary to the public interest."
- (2) Any interpretative rule, or general statement of policy adopted without notice and comment under paragraph (d)(1) of this section, except for those cases for which the Commission finds that such procedures would serve no public interest, or would be so burdensome as to outweigh any foreseeable gain.
- (f) For any post-promulgation comments received under paragraph (e) of this section, the Commission shall publish a statement in the FEDERAL REGISTER containing an evaluation of the significant comments and any revisions of the rule or policy statement made as a result of the comments and their evaluation.

§ 2.805 Participation by interested persons.

- (a) In all rulemaking proceedings conducted under the provisions of §2.804(a), the Commission will afford interested persons an opportunity to participate through the submission of statements, information, opinions, and arguments in the manner stated in the notice. The Commission may grant additional reasonable opportunity for the submission of comments.
- (b) The Commission may hold informal hearings at which interested persons may be heard, adopting procedures which in its judgment will best serve the purpose of the hearing.
